

ResApp Receives $1.785 Million R&D Tax Incentive Cash Rebate

Brisbane, Australia, 12 June 2019 – ResApp Health Limited (ASX:RAP), a leading digital health company developing smartphone applications for the diagnosis and management of respiratory disease, today announced that it has received $1.785 million from its R&D tax incentive claim for the financial year ending 30 June 2018. The Australian Federal Government's R&D Tax Incentive program provides a cash refund on eligible research and development activities performed by Australian companies.

Tony Keating, CEO and Managing Director of ResApp commented, "We are very grateful for the Australian Federal Government's commitment to support research and development by Australian companies. The receipt of this refund, and the previously received Advanced Overseas Finding for our planned US clinical activities, puts us in a very strong financial position as we begin to launch our innovative digital health products into global markets."
