20 December 2019

Appointment of Raymond Shuai as finance director

Animoca Brands Corporation Limited (ASX: AB1, “Animoca Brands” or “the Company”) is pleased to advise that it has appointed Raymond Shuai as finance director.

Mr Shuai has over 17 years of experience in finance and industry. His professional career began in 2002 at Deloitte & Touche, followed by JP Morgan in 2004, then Ambrian Partners from 2006 to 2008, where he gained substantial experience in audit, operations, fundraising, M&A, and IPOs, and advised corporates listed on the London Stock Exchange.

In 2009, he relocated to Asia to work for Jardine Matheson on corporate strategy as Corporate Finance Manager. In 2012 he became associate director at KPMG, working in corporate finance and private equity. In 2014 he focused his efforts on entrepreneurship by setting up a number of retail and F&B businesses, which he has since divested at profit.

In 2017, Mr Shuai co-founded OpenAlpha, a startup that later merged into CLSA Baikal with the backing of CLSA, a leading Asian brokerage and investment group, to create a blockchain based institutional marketplace for trading tokenised assets; Mr Shuai served as CLSA Baikal’s chief financial officer.

Mr Shuai is a Fellow of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales, and was a CFA Charterholder from 2006 to 2014. He holds a Master of Finance degree (Dean’s List) from the University of Cambridge, and a Master of Engineering degree (First Class) from University College London.
