Upon completion in 2018 the property will comprise a state of the art distribution centre of approximately 70,431 square metres, purpose built for Woolworths on a site of approximately 15.9 hectares. The warehouse will be partitioned into various storage components and will feature three varying clearance heights from approximately 6 metres to 45 metres.

The warehouse will have extensive loading facilities, hardstand and truck parking. Woolworths will invest a significant amount of capital in the internal fitout of the facility including extensive automation systems. The warehouse will be located within the Portlink Estate adjacent to a proposed inland port which will provide direct access to the Port of Melbourne. The estate is located in Dandenong South, approximately 36 kilometres south-east of the Melbourne CBD.
