- Our Future of Mining 365 virtual exhibition in partnership with the Singapore government Singapore International Ferrous Week was also held in July

Managing Director Alex Kent said:

“Aspermont continues to perform strongly across the board, despite challenging market conditions. Subscriptions growth is building momentum quarter on quarter as with other revenue streams. We were delighted to be able to run the Company’s first post COVID live events in Q3 which met appreciative audiences. We expect to increasingly lead a return to live events for the resource sectors over the next year.

International investors are building positions in Aspermont via our Frankfurt listing, as the story becomes more well known in European markets.

The company is profitable, well-funded and has growth momentum. We expect another strong set of results this year and for new investments from existing cash flow to further improve financial performance next year.”

¹ Q3-20 revenue contained a one-off government grant of $0.4m. Comparing year on year revenues for Q3-21 on a continuous basis resulted in 24% total revenue growth
